Invocation - Fort Wayne City Council Meeting. October 2, 1973

Dear Lord and Father of mankind, we come to You this evening in a spirit of humility, gratitude and joy!

As citizens and leaders of Fort Wayne, we are humbled by Your power and person. Help us to recognize our servant role to others in this community by acting wisely and with compassion in all the decisions of this City Council. Particularly do we ask Your guidance in assessing the needs of all people in Fort Wayne when we consider the 1974 city budget.

And continue to grant us, O Lord, a strong role as peace-makers: to bring forth a true sense of community based on Your love in order that all institutions and groups and persons might be respected as humans who are equally loved and equally given opportunities.

Grant us, O God, a vision as spirit-movers: to bring renewed spiritual vitality to our community throughout the remainder of this year of Key '73. We thank you for the many manifestations of Your Spirit alive in the recent Augsburger Crusade and in the individual churches. Help us to continue to be open to your Spirit here in the Council chambers tonight and on the streets of Fort Wayne tomorrow among men and women of all religions and convictions.

Grant, O Father, a Spirit of healing in our nation and sustain the efforts of peace-minded persons throughout the world that true brotherhood and love may be present in the difficult times that we continually face.

And finally give us here a sense of equanimity and respect for the person and opinions of all who attend this meeting tonight that we may better serve You and the people of Fort Wayne.

Amen.

Pastor Alden Tormala,

Associate Pastor, T.E.L.C.
